

How much like your parents are you?

Abraham Epilogue - Genesis 25:1-18

When Abraham dies, we are told a number of small details regarding his children, his burial place, and more. What might those details have meant to the ancient Israelites when they heard them?

Like Father, Like Son - Genesis 25:19-21, 26:1-33

For each of the following passages, answer the same questions:

- * What parallels do you see between Isaac and his dad?
- * What differences do you see between Isaac and his dad?
- * Where do you see the promise?

A Barren Wife (25:19-21)

Deceiving Abimelek (26:1-11)

A Promise in the Desert (26:12-25)

An Oath and a Well (26:26-33)

These passages are the only stories in Genesis where Isaac is the main character, and yet, they seem to be very close parallels to the stories of Abraham. In fact, it's as if the only thing we need to know about Isaac is that he was just like his dad in both faithfulness and failures and that he was just like his dad in being a recipient of God's undeserved grace.

Take it Home

In these stories, what evidence do you see of human faithfulness?

In these stories, what evidence do you see of human failures?

In these stories, what evidence do you see of God's grace?

What about all that is most meaningful to you?

How much like your parents are you?

Abraham Epilogue - Genesis 25:1-18

When Abraham dies, we are told a number of small details regarding his children, his burial place, and more. What might those details have meant to the ancient Israelites when they heard them?

Like Father, Like Son - Genesis 25:19-21, 26:1-33

For each of the following passages, answer the same questions:

- * What parallels do you see between Isaac and his dad?
- * What differences do you see between Isaac and his dad?
- * Where do you see the promise?

A Barren Wife (25:19-21)

Deceiving Abimelek (26:1-11)

A Promise in the Desert (26:12-25)

An Oath and a Well (26:26-33)

These passages are the only stories in Genesis where Isaac is the main character, and yet, they seem to be very close parallels to the stories of Abraham. In fact, it's as if the only thing we need to know about Isaac is that he was just like his dad in both faithfulness and failures and that he was just like his dad in being a recipient of God's undeserved grace.

Take it Home

In these stories, what evidence do you see of human faithfulness?

In these stories, what evidence do you see of human failures?

In these stories, what evidence do you see of God's grace?

What about all that is most meaningful to you?